

THIS IS WE.

And the day before it snowed.
There's a great many Republicans this year.
He laughs best who laughs 'after the votes come in.'
There are scarcely enough Democrats left to set a footer.

PUBLIC LEDGER

THIRD YEAR.      MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1894.      ONE CENT.

THIS IS HE.

And the day before it snowed.
The Eagle is decidedly a proud bird today.
Where, oh, where are the barnyard fowls?
There's an indigo hue to the Court-house air today.

BY SPECIAL PERMISSION OF JUDGE HELM OF NEWPORT.

The Bulletin's campaign methods have been condemned by the Mason county Democrats.

It will take Br'er Marsh the rest of his natural life to recover from yesterday's shock to his nervous system.

Colonel Jimmy Hason thinks of joining the A. P. A.

There'll now be a different administration of the county's affairs. The people got tired and wanted a "rotation" in office.

Councilman Chris Russell didn't carry the First Ward in a bottle this time. He will have to look out for his fences if Everett comes to another contest.

One of the strange things yesterday was the fact that a great many Irishmen voted for the Republican candidates, with the exception of Mr. O'Donnell.

Marsh, WHERE'N HELL WAS YOU WHEN THE CYCLONE STRUCK US?

BOOM!

SAM'L J. PUGH!

He Looks Very Much Like a Republican Winner.

Returns from this District are slow in coming in.
Enough is known, however, to warrant the belief that Pugh, Republican, is elected.
Mason gives Hart 144—a great big Democratic loss.
Fleming, Pugh 25 majority—another big Democratic loss.
Nicholas, Hart 600, Democratic loss, and the Republicans elect the Jailer.
Harrison, Hart 740, a Democratic loss of about 300.
Robertson gives Hart 131.
Bracken gives Hart 150, and he expected 400.
Boyd county elects Captain A. C. Hailey, Republican, County Judge by 507, and the entire Republican county ticket is elected.
Lewis county gave Pugh 1,014 majority.

MAYSVILLE, Nov. 7th.

Billy Brock, Lexington—You played hell with us.

J. KEYHOLE.

If Mr. Huckleberry A. O'Stanley, Esq., the "Cleric of Fleming county," "the young man eloquent," will only come down and give us some more of his oratory the Democrats won't be able next time to elect a Constable in Mason county.

HUNTINGTON TOWNSHIP.

Another Democratic Stronghold Flips Over to the Republicans.

Owing to local rejoicings we give only enough of Huntington Township, O., to show that our friends over there have caught the Republican fever.
Secretary of State—Taylor, H. 256; Turner, D. 293.
Sheriff—Weber, R. 209; Wood, D. 200.
Commissioner—E. Martin, R. 345; J. B. Holman, D. 197.
These are the main offices, showing that a heretofore strongly Democratic Township has gone Republican this year of grace.
Dr. Thomas M. Moore, a life-long Republican now nearing the 90's who has voted in this Township for 62 years, sees, for the first time, his vote put where it does good to the local ticket.
Judge Painter defeated Captain Hutchins four years ago by a majority of 700, and he will down him again tomorrow.—Yesterday's Bulletin.
You don't say so! You ought to hire yourself out for a mind reader.

MASON COUNTY

The Leopard, Br'er Marsh, Has Changed His Spots!

A few days ago The Bulletin was prophetic enough to remark that the leopard might change his spots.
But that Mason county would never go Democratic.
Alas!
The Bulletin is not a prophet.
Nor is Editor Marsh the son of a prophet.
Yesterday the Republicans had things pretty much their own way.
They elected—
The County Judge.

GEWHIZZ

Old Mason County, Rock-Ribbed Democratic, Goes Republican Yesterday!

MASON COUNTY

The Leopard, Br'er Marsh, Has Changed His Spots!

The County Clerk,
The County Attorney,
The County Jailer,
The County Assessor.
And all they left the Democrats were the Sheriff, the Surveyor and the Coroner.
The former got through by a scratch.
It has been a hard task to collate the figures, but in the table below we give the most reliable returns at command up to the hour we are forced to go to press.
The official count can change the results very little.

MCKINLEY AND WILSON ABOARD.

In 1890 William McKinley was buried in effigy in the English manufacturing city of Sheffield; but in 1894 William L. Wilson was died and buried in London because he is the author of a Free-trade Tariff Bill. These are significant facts.

STATEMENTS of the condition of the Federal Treasury are published monthly. Those statements showed that the Cleveland Administration delivered to the Harrison Administration $183,000,000; and the Harrison Administration turned over to the present Administration $124,000,000, a reduction of $59,000,000. As the Harrison Administration paid $243,000,000 of the National debt, while Cleveland paid but $133,000,000, a difference of $110,000,000, it would show that the Harrison Administration had $100,000,000 the best of it. When Democratic orators and papers assert that the Harrison Administration left a bankrupt Treasury, they state what every well-informed man knows is a palpable lie.

SHOT HIM DEAD!

OFFICER STOCKDALE INSTANTLY KILLS WILLIAM PRICE.

Culmination of a Series of Difficulties—Price Pays the Penalty For His Aggression.

Died with his boots on! That's the fate that generally befalls the desperado.

William Price, who was better known as "Boley" Price, was killed instantly about half past 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The particulars in brief are: Deputy Chief of Police W. A. Stockdale was at his home, 215 Walnut street, Fifth Ward.

Freeman Price, father of the dead man, lives with his family next door.

"Boley" had been drinking considerably, and had become so noisy about the police that the officers warned him away.

William Glin, a friend, volunteered to take him home.

When passing Stockdale's house, Price kicked the door and fired a pistol through the glass panel, the fragments of glass cutting the wrist of Miss Ella Stockdale, who was inside the door.

Mr. Stockdale, who had just come down stairs from his off-duty nap, was in the hall, but neither he nor his daughter had any warning of Price's presence or intentions.

After this Mr. Glin succeeded in getting Price to his own home, where his father and mother tried to keep him.

Meanwhile Mr. Stockdale had sent up stairs for his shotgun, and placed it next at hand in the hall, taking his stand in the doorway.

Instead of remaining at home Price came out, and confronting the officer began again his hostile demonstrations.

In a twinkling Stockdale reached his gun, and in less than time it took to write his name lay dead on the sidewalk, his breast filled with buckshot.

Throughout it appears that Mr. Glin had acted the part of peacemaker.

This is the sequel of two former shootings between the parties.

Several years ago Officer Stockdale shot Price in the leg while he was fleeing from arrest, and on June 18th, 1899, each shot the other on identical the same spot where yesterday's killing occurred. Price being slightly wounded in the chin and Stockdale receiving a severe wound in the stomach.

For this affair Price was sent to the Penitentiary for a year, and he had been recently returned here.

It will be remembered, also, that Price shot and dangerously wounded Polk

Forayth of Paris at the Maysville Fair some years ago.

The dead man would have been 30 years old next week.

A postmortem was held last evening, and Coroner Ross will hold an inquest at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Stockdale surrendered himself to Chief Clerk and Judge Platter placed him under $5,000 bond to appear for a hearing at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The bond was given promptly.

The funeral of William Price will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the residence on Walnut street, Fifth Ward. Rev. D. P. Holt will officiate.

Mr. S. A. Meyer is in Cincinnati today on business.

Miss Agnes O'Donnell is visiting Miss Marguerite Platter of Brookville.

Miss Cora Lowry left this morning for Louisville to visit her father, Mr. Theo. Lowry.

Miss Nannie Wells, of "Rose Hill," is the guest of Miss Sude McNeill, of West Third street.

Messrs. Charles and William Viero have finished their course in the Lexington Business College and returned to Maysville for the winter.

Mr. S. A. Gray of Pleasant Valley Mills is here spending a few days with friend H. W. Young of the Red Carpet.

Matter for publication in The Ledger MUST be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning.

Regular meeting of Ringgold Lodge No. 27 tonight. Work in the Initiatory Degree.

Miss Alice Higginbotham gave a reception Monday afternoon in honor of Miss Anna Danahill.

Judge Hutchins, we salute you! Clerk Cochran, we are yours! County Attorney Adair, shake! Jailer Johnson, how are you?

Assessor Dry, put it there! This is a too much glory for one day, and what we can't turn loose today will be on tap tomorrow.

A STRIKE

In the Coke Region of Connelville, Pa., Ordered.

The Trouble, it is Said Has Been Brewing for Some Time.

The Cause is a Big Jump in the Price of Coke. Not No Corresponding Increase in Wages. The Men Are Expected to Go Out November 15.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Nov. 7.—There are prospects of another strike in the Connelville coke region. It has been brewing for some time, and notices have been posted calling on the coke-workers and miners to come out on a strike November 15.

The whole matter is denied by District President Lawrence Davis, who says that no strike is contemplated. The McClure Co., suspecting that strike agitators were at work among the men, had shut down 150 owners and laid the suspected agitators off. The price of coke had advanced from 85 cents to prices ranging from $1.10 to $1.50 and $2. There had, however, been no corresponding advance in wages.

The operators are expecting a conflict is evidenced by the fact that they are storing coke as rapidly as possible.

CIVIL SERVICE EXTENSION. Chiefs of Divisions To Be Taken in Out of Political Weather.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The intimation coming from the civil service commission in announcing the recent extensions in the civil service by the president, that further extensions would be made as an emergency measure, has been discussed in the departments and among officials who know, and it is said the next extension will include chiefs of divisions in the various departments, which would be a very important move.

The salaries paid to these officers are $2,000 each. They have always been held as political plums for the smaller politician, who seeks office in Washington, and it is claimed that oftentimes they are appointed without any fitness whatever for the positions they hold. In many cases the assistant chiefs do all the business of a division during the entire administration. Sometimes it has been suggested that these assistants be promoted, but they generally decline because they fear a new administration might dispense with them and they would be out of a position. If the civil service system should be extended to chiefs of divisions, it will be a move of great importance to the service and accomplish what the commission has long contended for.

For Good Roads. WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The agricultural department is about to issue elaborate information on the subject of "good roads" which congress has directed the department to investigate. The publication will embrace the entire proceedings of the National Road conference held at Asbury Park, N. J., July 5, 6 and 7 last, at which representatives of every shade of opinion on improving roads was presented. Mr. Roy Stone, the special agent and road engineer of the department, will also include a number of addresses on the road question. He makes no report, so that these addresses practically constitute a report.

Prisoners Escape Jail. LAWRENCE, Kas., Nov. 7.—Five prisoners escaped from jail by sawing through the bars of a roof window. They were Matt Ryan, alias George Hayes, and Brock Ryan, burglar and pickpocket. Ryan has served terms in Joliet and Jefferson City penitentiaries. The other four were colored horse thieves—Bill Dooley, James Jones, John Austin and Fred Miller. Each had a half dozen aliases.

It is believed that the saw was given to Ryan by an old man who came to the jail two weeks ago, claiming to be a minister and wishing to pray with the prisoners.

Wife's Saving Association. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 7.—The ladies of the free kindergarten system and the Children's Aid society are actively engaged in making arrangements for the reception and entertainment of the delegates to the first annual convention of the World's Saving Association of America, which opens at the city hall on Friday. This association, which was organized last year at the World's fair, has already taken a high place among the charitable and benevolent organizations of the country.

An Explorer to Be Married. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—A J. Mountjoy Jephson, explorer and author, who went into Africa with Henry M. Stanley and found Emin Pasha, will come to California to be married. In a few weeks the wedding of Mr. Jephson and Miss Anna Reed, daughter of A. E. Reed, the well known millionaire mining man of this city, will be celebrated.

Northwestern Voters Out in Force. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 7.—The weather is cloudy throughout the state and clear west to the Rockies. No rain or snow is yet reported. Indications point to a tremendous vote. The recent cold snap has frozen all the roads and there will be a big vote polled everywhere.

Shelling Fort Arthur. LONDON, Nov. 7.—A dispatch from Shanghai to the Central News says that all the foreign residents in Fort Arthur have arrived at Chee Foo. An attack is now being made on Fort Arthur by the Japanese torpedo boats, and it is expected that Taiten Wan will be attacked during the day.

A Fort Abandoned. WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Gen. Brooke, commanding the department of the Platte, has issued an order for the abandonment of Ft. McKinley, Wyo. The troops of the Fifth Infantry are to be sent to Ft. D. A. Russell and Troop C, Ninth Cavalry, to Ft. Robinson, Neb.

WHY HE DID IT. A Suicide Induced by Ingersoll's "Destroying Theory."

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Wm. Miller, aged 31, who succeeded by firing a 22-caliber ball into his heart, left a letter behind saying that Ingersoll claimed it was right for a man to "destroy" himself. The deed was evidently premeditated, for in his pockets were found no less than five letters, addressed to as many different persons, and bidding all farewell. One letter was stamped and sealed, and on the envelope was written, in the German language, to Chas. Richter and Jacob Fritzsche, of 424 Wood street, the information that $35 included was for his funeral expenses. Another letter, to his sweetheart in this city, thanked her for her many kindnesses and expressed his love while to his mother in Germany was written a letter in a like strain.

Miller was apparently a man of morbid disposition and one easily to be influenced, for in the letter that he had addressed to Adolph Trippel, in a Virginia town, he quoted from Ingersoll's article favoring suicide. The excerpt from the letter is: "I heartily agree with Col. Ingersoll when he remarked, that when life is of no value and you are of no use to anyone, anyone, even to yourself, why not destroy yourself? Well, that is what I intend to do."

FOUND DEAD. A Dastardly Murder of a Probable Witness at Tacoma, Wash.

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 7.—About daylight the lifeless body of Matthew A. Bartlett, a well-known young man, was found on the sidewalk by a newsboy. His right ear was bruised and his nose bloody, but he bore no other marks of violence, though papers from his pockets were scattered about. His watch was untouched.

The theory generally advanced is that Bartlett was murdered for knowing too much about the mysterious death of Accountant Joseph Shadle, at the Stealcroft asylum, last month. Some claimed that Shadle was poisoned, though a subsequent investigation seemingly refuted the claim. At that time Bartlett was an attendant at the asylum, remaining until September. Several nights of last week he was followed by two men, and in explaining the matter to friends, he said that it was because he knew too much about the Shadle case. He bought a revolver and was much worried about the matter. Subsequently the two mysterious men attempted to hold him up but he evaded them.

ELECTIONS.

Republicans Make Large Gains.

New York Gives Morton 125,000 Majority.

With Strong, for Mayor of the City With 42,000.

Chairman Wilson Probably Defeated for Congress in West Virginia.

Also Gains in the Ashland District of Kentucky—Indiana Goes Republican by 50,000 Majority.—The West Union Representative Republican.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 7.—Tuesday's election, by the returns up to 8 a. m., appears to have resulted in a series of republican victories almost without precedent. New York state is republican by 125,000; the city elected a republican mayor by 42,000 and Tammany has been beaten as never before. In Ohio, 100,000 republican, and Illinois turned out an old-time republican plurality. As yet, however, no return of state has fallen into republican line. The next house of representatives is reliably republican.

COLUMBIA, O., Nov. 7.—The returns show a republican gain of twenty to a precinct, and if it keeps up there will be a gain of 60,000 over the phenomenal majority of Gov. McKinley, last fall, and the state will go republican. We have carried seventeen or eighteen congressional districts. The next congressional delegation from Ohio will probably consist of five republicans and four democrats, as follows: First district, Charles F. Tappan; Second, John H. Brownell; Third, Paul J. Harg; Fourth, P. C. Clayton; Fifth, P. R. Dwyer; Sixth, George W. Harg; Seventh, George W. Wilson; Eighth, L. M. Norton; Ninth, J. H. Southard; Tenth, L. J. Jensen; Eleventh, Charles H. Grosvenor; Twelfth, David K. Watson; Thirteenth, B. H. Young; Fourteenth, W. S. Kerr; Fifteenth, H. C. Van Vorst; Sixteenth, Lorenzo Danforth; Seventeenth, J. A. Richards; Eighteenth, Robert W. Taylor; Nineteenth, Stephen A. Northway; Twentieth, C. H. Beale; Twenty-first, Theodore E. Burton; Perry Caldwell, of Cincinnati, telegraphed Max Dick Hamilton county, a dispatch from Cleveland says that John Johnson carried the county by 1,000 to 600. The chairman of the Hamilton county committee telegraphed that if the ratio of gain in that county kept up to the rate of the rest of the state, it would give 100,000 republican.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—Tom L. Johnson succeeds his defeat by between 4,000 and 5,000. He will probably receive Jerry Simpson and Frank Wm. Johnson 11,377. Johnson's gain from his vote two years ago averaged 80 to the precinct. NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—A. m.—Returns received up to this hour show that the next house of representatives will be republican. The returns now show a gain for the republicans of 100,000. These gains are distributed as follows: New York, New York, 125,000; Massachusetts, 40,000; Kentucky, 30,000; Illinois, 20,000; New Jersey, 10,000; Connecticut, 10,000; Indiana, 10,000; North Carolina, 10,000; Rhode Island, 10,000; Colorado, 10,000; Wisconsin, 10,000. NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Albert Berg is re-elected to congress from the Sixth district. His majority, however, has been greatly reduced. He has carried Schenectady county by 800 Boone county by 1,000. Sullivan by 800 Carroll by 400. Tilden by 700. Montgomery by 800. Matthews has carried Campbell county by 1,000 and Franklin by 1,000. The gains are not official, but the majority of Mr. Berg will be less than 3,000 in this district. The usual democratic majority is never so great as in this district. In every voting precinct in the district were cut down, and the small gains showed that had an even gain, it would surprise the democrats. Matthews lost down the majority in the neighborhood of 2,000.

MASSACHUSETTS, Nov. 7.—The state claims Loud (rep.) congressmen will be elected by 1,000 plurality over Jerry Simpson and give the state to Morrill by 10,000 plurality. ALABAMA, Nov. 7.—Relief shows a democratic loss. Wake county is probably republican. New Ireland is probably republican. NEW HAMPSHIRE, Nov. 7.—The republican has carried every congressional district in the state except the seventh, which is in doubt, by majorities ranging from 100 to 1,000. In the seventh, Howard (rep.) is pressing Democrat close, and may win.

MARYLAND, Nov. 7.—The county of the county (Jefferson) gives him 1,400 majority, which is less than was anticipated. The election in the second district will be close, and will require the official count of the day or two. The republicans are jubilant and claim Matthews' defeat, but the returns from the back counties can not be set for a day or two. The democrats are very uneasy.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Total vote for Cooper Strong, 102,619; Grant, 11,217; Strong over Grant, 91,402. CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Congressman William M. Springer wired the Associated Press as follows: "The returns at 10 a. m. indicate my defeat."

COLORADO, Nov. 7.—The returns indicate a most remarkable growth of the prohibition law. It will exceed 50,000, and the prohibition is freely made in the next year. The law will contain a majority pledged to the enactment of a more stringent law, and the prohibition law option bill, defeated last winter after a hard fight.

MAINE, Nov. 7.—The counting of the votes is progressing very slowly and it will be some time before the final result is known. The republicans are very anxious for the results of the election, but the returns from the back counties can not be set for a day or two. The democrats are very uneasy.

more than 100,000 in Ohio, and a whitening of republican votes in Illinois and the city of Chicago. At this hour the returns moves the completion of the election of the next house of representatives by a small majority.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—The democratic county committee practically concedes that Morton has carried 300 counties by at least 10,000. The republican city and county electors have a clean sweep.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—Present indications are that West Virginia will send a solid republican delegation to congress, and that the republicans will have a majority in the legislature. This is based on the ratio of returns from the counties, which are in the majority. It is based on the ratio of returns from the counties, which are in the majority. of the state democratic central committee says that Matthews has run behind as far as the other states. It concedes the election of Governor by 30,000 and Alfred Smith for lieutenant governor. It admits the republican democratic congressmen, but claims the election of C. C. and W. C.
